

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

ANTHONY BRODZKI,

Plaintiff,

v.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Defendant.

CASE NO. C10-1656MJP

ORDER DECLINING TO SERVE
COMPLAINT AND DISMISSING ACTION

Plaintiff has filed a civil complaint, a motion for an injunction and a motion to seal with this court. The Court, having reviewed the complaint and record, does hereby find and ORDER that the complaint is defective for the following reasons:

(1) Rule 8(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure provide that

A pleading which sets forth a claim for relief... shall contain (1) a short and plain statement of the grounds upon which the court's jurisdiction depends, unless the court already has jurisdiction to support it, (2) a short and plain statement of the clam showing that the pleader is entitled to relief, and (3) a demand for judgment for the relief the pleader seeks...

Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(a).

1 Plaintiff's complaint does not comply with any of the requirements set forth in Rule 8(a).
2 His complaint is a rambling, convoluted and fantastical patchwork of conspiratorial allegations,
3 none of which are alleged to have occurred within the Western District of Washington. The 4 Court is further aware that Plaintiff has filed dozens of lawsuits across the country, all of which
5 have been dismissed within weeks of being filed. This one is no exception.

6 IT IS ORDERED that this complaint, and the accompanying motions, are DISMISSED
7 with prejudice.

8
9 The clerk is ordered to provide copies of this order to Plaintiff.

10 Dated December 8, 2010.
